For Love and Country is a compelling story of a Canadian soldier whose contribution to Canadian society made a difference. The biography of Private Ted Patrick, is not just a war story. Its also a love story spanning 63 years, a story of two young people whose lives were interrupted by WW2. Its a love story about a shy, bashful member of the Irish Regiment of Canada and the Royal Canadian Corps of Signals. Faced with the decision to fight for his country, he decided to forego marriage until he returned from the war unscathed, When I come home, if I have any major physical disabilities, forget about me. His beloved Eileen waited more than two years for him to return. During that time they exchanged more than 200 love letters, one of which received press coverage in a major Ottawa, Canada newspaper. The book contains more than 60 photographs. Private Patrick, a radio operatorsignalman, describes his exploits at the front and referred to his job as being like a dog on a leash as he followed the commanders. On many occasions, he found himself in a foxhole where he spent hours digging, clutching the dirt and hoping the mortars were misguided and the snipers were poor marksmen. The first story he related to the authors brought a torrent of tears and sobbing, their first real exposure to the effects of the Post Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD). Shortly after arriving in southern Italy, Private Patrick witnessed a heart-wrenching incident. The pregnant wife of a member of the Italian resistance (partisans) ran across a field to her husband who had joined up with the allied forces. It was a minefield. She ended up surviving, thanks to a...
