Their work is very exacting, and they must work long hours. The work can only be thoroughly learned in a feather curling establishment, and places are not easy to obtain. Glove Making: --The center of the glove making industry in this country is centered around Gloversville, . Learn why many women in that part of the country understood something of the business a few years ago and many of them were sufficiently expert to earn a good pay. The same is probably still true. There is need in the future of women who can refit gloves. Some glove makers import expert help for their use, but a good new woman can readily learn all that is necessary, and a new woman who can refit gloves, can often command quite liberal pay. There are many...
