As this collection swings through the arc of tragedies and harmonies of a life, Hall s ever-vigilant eye reconnoiters a misfit yet glorious world full of sometimes troubling and very nearly always gratifying surprises. Tom Daley, Poetry Instructor, Boston Center for Adult Education Seldom does one find a poet who explores the complexities of life events with such directness, while maintaining that twist of poetic whim. Both the courageous honesty, and the willingness to proceed through simple pathways to profound discernment, draw...
