It is from the altar that you and your children will gain God s help to think of Christian marriage as Christ did and keep it sacred from the monstrous notions entertained of marriage outside the Catholic Church and beyond the range of the Blessed Sacrament. The holy and sublime union between Christ and His Church, as has been said, is likened by St. Paul to the union of marriage. Christ is the bridegroom and His Church is the spouse. The Bible used to be sacred with all Christians, but now many who call themselves Christians, reject all divine revelation or distort its teachings. What will become of Christian marriage, that picture of the union of Christ and His Church? The prospect is truly appalling. The bond once permanent is broken for a thousand and one pretexts. Divorce is rampant, especially in America. The most extravagant and dangerous theories about marriage are propounded and discussed with shameless freedom in books and in the daily press. The most sacred duties of matrimony are despised and ridiculed. Where once a modest reticence veiled the union of father and mother, now an unblushing frankness discusses and debates everything unreservedly even before the young and innocent. Where is this to end? No one knows. You must then draw nearer to the Blessed Sacrament which will give you grace to remain or become good fathers and good...
