Each room was asked How many know about the Exposition? Every hand went up. The school children of Oregon are preparing some souvenirs to be given away to the teachers of Eastern schools, and when teachers register at the Oregon educational exhibit they will carry away little remembrances from pupils living away out West where snowcapped mountains pierce the sky, and a land of health, wealth and happiness. The last, but not the least, to be mentioned is the mineral exhibit. This is a surprise, and a collection of great interest. Oregon is in her infancy with the mineral States, yet she is taking rapid strides along the road to maturity. Pan-American has echoed and reechoed through the hills and mountains of...
