Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Report of the Sixth Reunion of the Grant Family Association: At the Brevoort House, Manhattan, New York City, February 27, 1914 Dear Kinsman: A meeting of the Grant Family Association will be held at the Hotel Brevoort, Fifth avenue and Eighth street, Borough of Manhattan, New York City, on Friday evening, February 27, 1914, at 7 o'clock. The election of Officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting will first be in order, after which the banquet will be held, the cost of which will be two dollars and fifty cents per cover. In spite of the long and unavoidable lapse of time since our last meeting, the Directors and the Reunion Committee count upon the loyal support of every member in this renewal of activities, which makes our association the pacemaker among family associations. Remember, it was the first family association to be incorporated in this country, and that as a family it has a record to be proud of. In individual cases, the name is known...

Reviews

This is the finest publication we have read through right up until now. Better then never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. Its been written in an remarkably easy way in fact it is only after i finished reading through this book by which basically altered me, affect the way i think.
