I fain would offer something new At this glad time, but I have naught, Not even one new wish, or thought. Only the same old love; you know I gave it to you years ago. Only the memories of old That never have grown changed or cold. No, I have nothing new: and yet I scarcely think I need regret That it is so, for you and I Have precious things from days gone by. But if good wishes, good can bring Mine are with you, in everything. So take the old love, tried and true On from the old years to the new.
