Well, after travelling some days, whom should I light upon but a company of strolling players. The moment I saw them at a distance my heart warmed to them; I had a sort of natural love for everything of the vagabond order. They were employed in settling their baggage, which had been overturned in a narrow way: I offered my assistance, which they accepted, and we soon became so well acquainted that they took me as a servant. This was a paradise to me; they sang, danced, drank, ate, and travelled all at the same time. By the blood of all the Mirabels! I thought I had never lived til then; I grew as merry as a grig, and laughed at every...
