On June 5, 1998, the Department of Commerce issued a Statement of Policy entitled Management of Internet Names and Addresses (the White Paper) setting forth the Administrations policy for privatizing management of the domain name system in a pro-6 competitive manner that would also facilitate global participation. The White Paper called upon the private sector to create a new, not-for-profit corporation to assume responsibility, over time, for the management of certain aspects of the domain name system. The Department ultimately entered into agreements with ICANN, a non-profit corporation formed by the private sector, to undertake this transition. As described in the White Paper, the United States sought the assistance of the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO) to initiate a balanced and transparent international process to: 1) develop a set of recommendations for an approach to resolving trademark domain name disputes involving cyberpiracy; 2) develop recommendations for the protection of well-known marks in the generic TLDs; and 3) evaluate the effects of adding new TLDs and related dispute resolution procedures on domain name...
