On January 1, 1911, Mr. Middleton G. Beaman resigned the librarianship of the Law Library to become associated with the Legis lative and Bill Drafting Bureau now, with an endowment, attached to Columbia University; and on October I Mr. J. David Thompson resigned the charge of our Division of Documents to become Law Librarian at Columbia, to which institution we had already, indirectly, surren dered Dr. W. D. Johnston as University Librarian. Mr. Beaman s distinctive work with us was the direction and part editorship of the Index to the Statutes at Large; Mr Thompson s has been various, including not merely (of late years) the administration of the Division of Docu ments, but final revision in classification and subject head ing, of the literature of the pure sciences; and for several years the...
