DEBT HOPE: DOWN AND DIRTY SURVIVAL STRATEGIES

Bookshaker. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 222 pages. Dimensions: 8.8in. x 6.0in. x 0.6in. The official e-book of the Debtors Revolution. Revised and updated with 140 pages of inside information and actionable strategies. 214 footnotes and other references hyperlinked to source material on the web. Ann Minch says You Need This Book! Insider Secrets in my book: How creditors improperly use certain forms of leverage to try to collect from you long after they are legally allowed to. How collectors can get their names on your credit reports even when they are no longer allowed to have information listed there. Dirty tricks creditors use to get around the statute of limitations. Why using the statute of limitations to defend against a creditor should be the last resort. Why paying a collector everything they want doesn't guarantee you won't be returned to for the same debt again and again-and what to do about it. How collectors try to manufacture proof you owe them a debt. Why past trouble with a bank account means you must be extremely careful who you order checks from. Why you may not be in the clear even after a judgment against you has expired. Which states turn public officials trying to help a creditor collect from you into a profit center by giving them a percentage. Why depositing a 1.55 check can cost you everything in your bank account. Debtors prison is a relic of history-or is it? Which states judgments continue carrying whatever outrageous interest the creditor was charging you. How a creditor can file bankruptcy for you-and why they're wary of doing it. What to do after you pay a judgment, and why you may want to delay doing it. Credit card offers you should never, ever accept. How turning eighteen can put you suddenly...
