Three days before the festival of the heathen, it is forbidden to have any business with them. In the future the Lord will take the Holy Scroll in hand, saying, He who was occupied with it shall appear and receive his reward. The kingdom of Rome will then enter first, etc. After Rome has departed, Persia enters, etc. We have constructed many bridges, conquered many great cities, we were engaged in many wars, all for the sake of Israel to enable them to study the law, etc. Have we then accepted the Torah, and not fulfilled its commandments? A Gentile who is occupied with the study of the law is likened to a High-priest, etc. Lord of the Universe, has then Israel, who has accepted the Torah, observed it? Men of ye nations may come and testify that Israel has observed the Torah. Nimrod may testify, etc. There are twelve hours in a...
